A Bibliography of Commentaries on the United Nations International Sales Convention†

The U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will come into force on January 1, 1988. Italy, the People's Republic of China, and the United States deposited instruments of ratification with the U.N. Secretary General on December 11, 1986. These three countries join eight states that were already parties to the Convention: Argentina, Egypt, France, Hungary, Lesotho, Syria, Yugoslavia, and Zambia. Now that the Convention will come into force knowledgeable observers confidently expect that other important trading partners of the United States will become parties to the Sales Convention.¹

For readers who wish to learn more about the Convention I have prepared the following bibliography.² It collects English-language commentaries on the Sales Convention, together with an incomplete listing of non-English materials set out at the end. The most useful, longer introduction to the Convention is J. HONNOLD, UNIFORM LAW FOR INTERNATIONAL SALES UNDER THE 1980 UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION (1982), which includes the essential texts in its appendices. Of the shorter introductions, see Winship, New Rules for International Sales, 68 A.B.A.J. 1230-1234 (1982), and Winship, International Sales Contracts Under the 1980 Vienna Convention, 17 U.C.C. L.J. 55-71 (1984). The International Lawyer published a symposium on the Convention at 18 INT'L LAW. 3-56 (1984). Any serious study of the Convention will require access to the official records of the 1980 diplomatic conference in Vienna at which the text of the Convention was adopted.³

*Member, State Bar of Texas; Professor of Law, Southern Methodist University.

†The bibliography is current as of January 15, 1987.

1. Up-to-date information about countries that have ratified the Convention may be obtained from the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations (tel. [212] 754-7958/5048).

2. For relevant materials published before 1980, see the bibliography printed in 27 AM. J. COMP. L. 345-352 (1979).

3. The official records of the 1980 Vienna conference may be purchased (Sales No. E.82.V.5) from United Nations Publications, Room GA-32, United Nations, New York, N.Y. 10017. The published volume of the official records states that the sales number is E.81.IV.3; this number is incorrect as it has been superseded by the number cited above.
